Adelita entered “Casa de la Esperanza” in February 2008 along with her aunt, Marcelina Bustillos Moreno. Adelita comes from a Tarahumara family (an Indian tribe indigenous to the area). Her father is in jail and her mother is struggling to make a living and cannot provide and take care of her. Adelita is a sweet and joyful child. She has a big smile on her face, she likes playing with other kids outside and especially enjoys the swings. Adelita brings a lot of joy to everybody at Casa.
