

our children

Name:

Alma Rosa Nevarez

Age:

Ten

Alma was born on August 1, 1999. Alma was reported to DIF (an organization comparable to the Department of Social Services in the US) by neighbors that Alma was locked up and left alone in the house without food for days on end while the mother was away. Alma suffers from other forms of abuse as well. Alma is a beautiful, caring young girl who is responsive to kindness and love given by those around her. She demonstrates a unique sense of caring by always looking out for the other children. Alma's favorite color is Casa peach; her favorite subject is math; and her favorite food is enchiladas. Alma would like to be a teacher when she grows up.
