

our children

Name:

Cristina Cervantes

Age:

Nine

Cristina came to “Casa de la Esperanza” when she was six years old. Her family is Tarahumara (indigenous Indian tribe), and her parents do not have sufficient resources to send Cristina and her older sister, Maribel, to school. Cristina is a kind and friendly girl who enjoys playing outside with Barbie dolls and spending time with the animals around Casa. She is very affectionate and likes giving and receiving hugs.