

our children

Name:

Victor Valenzuela

Age:

Ten

Victor came to live to “Casa de la Esperanza” on September 6, 2005. His parents work a low paying job picking apples in the orchards around Cuauhtemoc and do not have sufficient resources to send him to school. His brother, Ismael, and his sister, Regina, also live at Casa. Victor is intelligent and dedicated. He likes learning new things, playing outside with trucks and cars with other boys, and spending time with the animals around Casa. He is always polite and kind to others and brings joy to the children and the employees of Casa.
